IMA announces films for its annual Summer Nights series

INDIANAPOLIS—The Indianapolis Museum of Art announced today the schedule for its 33rd annual Summer Nights film series. From June 6 to August 29, movies are shown every Friday on the IMA's amphitheater, located on the west side of the Museum.

Since the series debuted in 1976, the IMA has hosted more than 250 screenings of films ranging from black-and-white classics to modern hits. This year, highlights include the holiday-inspired film "Glory" on Friday, July 4; the first-ever midnight showing of "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" on July 11; and the Bollywood film "Sholay" on Aug. 22.

Summer Nights promotional support is provided by Emmis Communications. For film descriptions, go to www.imamuseum.org and click on "news."

Summer Nights Film Schedule

June 6: Grease

June 13: Gilda

June 20: This is Spinal Tap

June 27: The Goonies

July 4: Glory

July 11: The Rocky Horror Picture Show (midnight showing; gates open at 10 p.m.)

July 18: The Mummy

July 25: The Big Lebowski

August 1: Strangers on a Train

Ticketing and Hours

The gates open at 6 p.m. for picnicking; films begin at dusk (except on July 11; the gates on that day will open at 10 p.m. and the film will begin at midnight). Patrons are invited to bring their own picnics, blankets and lawn chairs. IMA is open until 9 p.m. on Fridays. Patrons may visit the Museum's galleries or Lilly House before attending the films.

Tickets $3 for members and $8 for the public and may be purchased at the gate only. Members must present their current membership card to receive the discounted price. Children six and under are admitted free.

Film Cancellation

Films will be canceled in the event of inclement weather. Film status can be confirmed after 4 p.m. on the day of the film. Call 317-923-1331 or visit www.imamuseum.org under Calendar of Events. If a film is rained out during the first hour of the film, the IMA will issue all patrons a rain check good for the remaining Summer Nights series. No rain checks will be issued if the film is rained out after the first hour. No refunds will be offered.
